What's been said?

My mum owns a cleaning business, and you have to pay for staff and products to keep the business going, so money is really important.

Here is a Yes comment from a voter at Iveson Primary School.

There are many things that should be thought about such as kindness, employee rights and working conditions. There is more to life than money.

Here is a No comment from a voter at Holland House.

This week you are voting on...

2 Why are we talking about this?

Today, we are talking about playing games.

Some games are about trying to be the best at a sport.

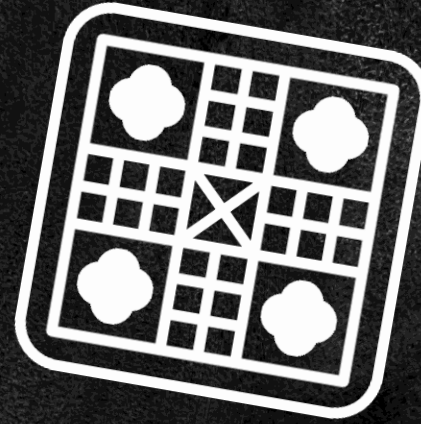

Other games are about trying to win a game that you are playing against someone else.

2 Why are we talking about this?

Games usually have rules that the players are meant to follow.

Breaking the rules on purpose is often called cheating.

2 Why are we talking about this?

Some people have used medicine to help them do better in games and sport.

Some people think this is not fair. They think that it is breaking the rules.

Remember – children should only have medicine from a doctor.

You should never put any medicine that you find in your mouth.

2 Why are we talking about this?

Today you will be voting Yes or No to this question:

"Is it ever okay to cheat in a game?"

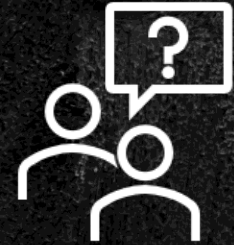

2 Why are we talking about this?

Before you start...
Is anyone feeling nervous?

Don't worry! Most people have cheated at a game before - ask your teacher and see whether this is something they have tried!

Today is all about sharing YOUR ideas about what you think is okay, or not okay.

3 Exploring the reasons

The rules 📖 in games 🎲 can be hard to understand 😞 sometimes.

It is not always easy to decide ❓ whether what someone has done is okay ✓ or not okay. ✗

3 Exploring the reasons

Pair task (4-6 mins)

Let's hear 🗣️ from some children 👦 who have cheated in a game. 🎲

They will tell us 🗣️ what they did, and why they did it. ❓

Talk to your partner 💬 about whether you think this is okay ✓ or not okay. ✗

3 Exploring the reasons

“I just nudged the dice so that I got a six.
I’ve been stuck at the start for ages!”

I think this is okay ✓ because...

Talk to your partner. 🗨️

I think this is not okay ✗
because...

3 Exploring the reasons

“I changed my I Spy answer in my head because Feliks got it straight away. I didn’t want to give up my go so quickly!”

I think this is okay ✓ because...

Talk to your partner. 🗣️

I think this is not okay ✗ because...

3 Exploring the reasons

“Leah tagged me, but I said she didn’t.
I just wanted to keep playing for longer!”

I think this is okay ✓ because...

Talk to your partner. 🗨️

I think this is not okay ✗ because...

3 Exploring the reasons

“I looked at my older sister’s cards. She always wins, and I don’t have a chance of winning.”

I think this is okay ✓☐ because...

Talk to your partner. 🗨️

I think this is not okay ✗ because...

3 Exploring the reasons

“I’ve been stuck at the start for ages!”

“I don’t have a chance of winning!”

Challenge (1 min)
Can you think of any other reasons that someone might cheat in a game? 🎲

“I didn’t want to give up my go so quickly!”

“I just wanted to keep playing for longer!”

4 How does cheating make you feel?

Class task (4-6 mins)

You will now hear  some different feelings that people have about cheating in games.

When you hear  about each feeling  decide whether you have had this feeling  before.

I have felt this way before –

I have not felt this way before –

Now's your chance to vote Yes or No on:
"Is it ever okay to cheat in a game?"

Yes

Sometimes, it's not a big deal.
Cheating can be part of the fun!

Yes

I think it can be okay!
Sometimes, I am just testing how the game works and finding ways to win.

It makes games boring if you cheat. If everyone cheated, the game would not make any sense anymore.

No

Cheating is just not fair. It means one person has just decided that they don't have to follow the rules.

No
